

CIVIC LEADER PROGRAM (CLP)

To promote information-sharing between AFRL Senior Leaders and civic leadership - providing outside perspectives and ideas.

MISSION

Building a core group of informed and well-connected advocates to advise AFRL leadership.

Providing a conduit between communities and AFRL mission-level engagement.

WHAT IS A CIVIC LEADER?

An advocate who engages, educates, influences, and inspires local, regional and national-level community leaders.

A selected activist to assist in the dissemination of information about AFRL

WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF THE CLP?

CLP increases the bond between local civic leaders, the Air Force Research Laboratory, Air Force and Space Force.

Serve as advisors and as unofficial spokespersons for AFRL – ultimately providing ideas and feedback to the commander.
